

DRUGGISTS URGE DRY LAW CHANGE

Resent Classification Under Volstead Act as "Retail Liquor Dealers."

WASHINGTON, May 7.—L. E. Sayre, President of the American Pharmaceutical Association yesterday voiced the opposition of druggists to the classification as "retail liquor dealers" after being recognized by the Government as legal guardians of liquor for medicinal purposes.

"Since the Volstead act recognizes the sale of distilled spirits and wines for medicinal purposes and other prescribed non-beverages," said he, "and places upon the pharmacist alone the responsibility of dispensing them for medicinal use, the contention may fairly be held that, the sale of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes being no longer lawful, to license a pharmacist as a liquor dealer, as now prescribed by statute, makes him appear to be a violator of the purpose and intent of the prohibitory law. This is unjust."

"We are told that an act of Congress would be necessary to change the classification. Doubtless our Congressman will appreciate the fairness and justice of this protest, and it is to be hoped that our association will provide proper measures to bring relief to pharmacists from the odium which this classification brings. By what should be considered as unwarranted reflections upon the profession, sensation mongers, in exploiting their words, are doing much to make this medium more difficult for the professional pharmacist to bear."

Larkin's New Job on a Coal Pile.
